❖ Thirty-Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time

On this the last Sunday of the liturgical calendar we have Matthew's scene of the Last Judgement and Ezekiel's image of the caring Shepherd who looks after his flock. We will be judged on how we cared for one another.

First Reading: (Ezekiel 34:11-12;15-17)

God is portrayed not so much as a Judge of his people, but as someone who cares for them, as a good shepherd cares for his flock.

Second Reading: (1 Cor. 15:20-26;28)

At the end of time Christ will reign as universal king, having overcome all negative forces, including death.

Gospel: (Matthew 25: 31-46)

This tells us how the followers of Jesus will be judged. How have we lived the Gospel.

Parish Survey

The Parish Pastoral Council (PPC) carried out a Parish Survey in June of this year. While the response rate was low, most of the replies were complimentary. Thanks to all who participated.

The main issues raised were the need to reach out to young people and the need to support families in passing on the Faith. The PPC is considering how they can respond to these concerns.

Concrete suggestions on how to address these issues, and volunteers willing to become involved in implementing these suggestions, would be welcome. The PPC can be contacted through the Parish Office or email the Parish Secretary glacey@laurellodgeparish.ie

Wednesday next 29th November Lectio Divina from 7.15pm to 8pm in the Day Chapel followed by Adoration from 8pm to 9pm with blessing.
All welcome.

Thanks to all who supported the recent St. Vincent de Paul monthly outdoor collection which amounted to €2,605.00
