September 1st/2nd 2018 – Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

❖ Mass for the coming week:
 Monday to Friday at 10.00a.m.

❖ Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

All three readings seem to tie in with each other. Moses in the first reading encourages the people to be faithful to God's law; it is not a burden but a source of life and wisdom. In the gospel the Jews added to the law of God their own practices and traditions which got in the way of God's law. In the second reading we learn from St. James the connection between faith and love.

First Reading: (Deut. 4:1-2;6-8)

Moses advises the people to be faithful to God's law; it is not a burden to be endured, but a source of life and wisdom.

Second Reading: (James: 1;17-18;21,22,27)

It is not enough to listen to God's word; we must put it into practice..

Gospel: (Mark 7:1-8;14-15;21-23)

Jesus tells the Pharisees that they have substituted the law of God for their own law.

First Friday: Mass will be offered for those whose names are on the Altar List of the Dead. After 10a.m. Mass there will be exposition of the Blessed Sacrament until 11.30a.m.

Sacrament of Reconciliation

Rite One of this sacrament is available in the Confessional Room every Friday from 9.15am to 9.45am and Saturday from 5.15pm to 6.15pm. Rite Two is celebrated after the 6.30pm Mass on the first Saturday of the month.
