THE MOST HOLY TRINITY – SUNDAY 4th JUNE 2023

Today we are celebrating the great mystery of the blessed Trinity. Because God has befriended us in love we are no longer strangers; we are part of God's family.

First Reading: (Ex. 34:4-6; 8-9)

God reveals himself to Moses on Mount Sinai, as a God who is faithful to his promises.

Second Reading: (2Cor. 13:11-13)

Paul encourages the Corinthians to live in peace and love.

Gospel: (Jn. 3:16-18)

God has shown his love for us by sending his Son to save us all. All who believe in him will be saved.

REFLECTION

Nowadays thanks to the security camera, we are frequently being watched by a cold dispassionate eye, intent only on catching us in wrongdoing.

The feeling that someone is watching us is not a pleasant feeling. But the feeling that someone is watching over us is a lovely feeling.

God is not watching us; God is watching over us.

This conviction gives us strength in times of weakness, comfort in times of sadness and hope in times of despair.
